The ants are an example of friendship, unity and wisdom. Ants are social insects. Most of them are worker ants, some are soldier ants and one or two are mother ants. The mother ant is also called the 'Queen Ant'. The queen is looked after by the other ants. She lays eggs which are protected by the other ants till the young ones come out from them.

Ants live together in a colony built by them. This colony is a raised mud-hill and is called an anthill. Ants work in a group in the most disciplined manner. Worker ants collect food for all, for the rainy days. They also carry eggs on their back to a safe place whenever there is any danger. Ants can lift objects which are heavier than their own body weight. Some ants act like nurses. They look after the babies. The soldier ants have big jaws and they fight the enemies who come to their colony to harm them.
